REWRITE - 21334

9/4/70

Dear Dr. Trofimenko:

You were very kind and thoughtful to send me a copy of your new book. My staff has provided a rough translation, and I have read it with great interest.

It was a pleasure to meet you.

Best regards,

(Signed) HENRY A. KISSINGER

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. KISSINGER

FROM: William Hyland

SUBJECT: Copy of Book from Dr. G. A. Trofimenko

Dr. Trofimenko sent you a signed copy of his book on Global War which quotes you at various points. CIA has done a quick summary in English, highlighting the parts that refer to your books. (Tab B).

I have done a brief reply from you (Tab A) which, if you agree, we can send back through the Soviet Embassy Counselor Evstafiev, who delivered the book with an accompanying letter.

RECOMMENDATION

That you sign the letter to Dr. Trofimenko at Tab A.

Dear Dr. Kissinger:

It is my pleasure to send on to you, at the request of my old friend in Moscow, Dr Henry Trofimenko, his recent book, which is called "The Stratgy of Global War" and which represents a broad discussion of the evolution of American strategic foreign policy doctrines by the Soviet scolar. The book was highly appreciated by the scientific community. Presently Dr.Trofimenko is a Senior Research Fellow at the Institute of International Workers' Movement of the USSR Academie of Sciences in Moscow.

Dr.Trofimenko also asked me to convey to you his best regards. I am doing it with great pleasure.

In case you would like to reply Dr.Trofimenko or send him one of your publications with your personal autograph I would be glad to send it over to him.

Yours sincerely,

Alexander P. Evstafiev
Counselor
